A Short Report:

Thalassemia is an incurable disease. Only awareness may help us to protect ourselves from this curse of the society. Therefore the NSS units of Rabindra Mahavidyalaya organized a Thallasemia Awareness Camp in Rabindra Mahavidyalaya in association with the Bishnupur Thalasaemic Guardian Society, Bishnupur. Our honorable Principal Dr. Prasanta Bhattacharyya has inaugurated the programme with welcome of the chief guest and discussed about some important point about the Thalassemia. Than the chief guest Sri Prabir Sen gave a speech on the said topic.

Total participation of the students:

Female: 33

Male: 31
